GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (GDPR)

By signing the entry form or entering a competition class in any way, entrants agree that we may share their data, if necessary, with the breed societies. Data may be published in the Show Programme, on the Show's website and results may be provided to the local press. Entrants' data will also be retained in order that the Show secretaries can provide entrants with a Show schedule of classes in the subsequent year. Entrants have the right to withdraw consent to this at any time by contacting the Show Secretary on 01900 368909

Rules & Regs

LOWESWATER
SHOW

No stock entered for the competition is to be removed until after the Grand Parade. All horse and pony trophy winners are to participate in the Parade. All Exhibitors must comply with the Rules.

The Stewards in charge of various rings are responsible for their good management, and have all control over the exhibitors and their attendants.

The Judges or Committee reserve the power of withholding any prize should the exhibit or animals, in their opinion, not be of sufficient merit. If there is only one entry in any class the Prize money will be reduced by one half.

The prizes, except where stated otherwise, are open to all comers. No trophies or cups to be won outright.

The Company reserves the right to appoint other Judges in the case of illness or non-attendance.

The Company will not be responsible for any loss or accident which may occur, but reserves the right, through its appointed Committee, to correct any error or mistake which may arise. Livestock exhibitors are solely responsible for the control of their animals which must remain in their allocated places until called and exhibitors must insure their own stock for Public Liability. The entry form now includes a declaration to this effect.

No entries, unless otherwise stated, will be taken on the field. ALL pre-entries to be made on the entry form to the person stated for each section. Entries to be submitted by 23 August 2024, later entries may be accepted by agreement only.

Should any Prize Animals or Lot, shown singly or in groups, be disqualified, the prize will go the next in merit.

Any protests are to be made in writing to the Secretary within two (2) days of the Show, accompanied with a deposit of £10, which deposit shall be forfeited in the case the protest shall not be sustained and, if sustained, the defaulter will be held liable to the Show for the amount of deposit. Any dispute or mistake that may arise shall be referred to the relevant Committee for consideration whose decision shall be final and without appeal.

The Show will gratefully receive Subscriptions and Support. Well-wishers and Exhibitors may send their contributions direct to The Secretary, who will gladly acknowledge the same.

Health & Safety

Loweswater and Brackenthwaite Agricultural Show Ltd (the Company) is fully committed to the prevention of accidents and any damage to the environment. To achieve this objective, the Company will follow a Health and Safety Policy to ensure, so far as is reasonably practical that:

- All personnel fully understand their role and responsibilities for the management of hazards.
- Those with delegated roles are competent in those roles.
- Processes are used to identify hazards and risks.
- Procedures and instructions are in place for safe operation.
- Plans are prepared, tested and reviewed for foreseeable problems.
- The implementation of this policy is audited and reviewed annually
- The Policy will be kept in the Secretary's Marquee for inspection.

The Company will ensure that this policy is available to all Committee members and volunteers. All persons have a duty of care, that duty extends to self protection, protection of the general public, not to cause injury or suffering to farm animals and to safeguard the property of both the Company and also that of landowners. Following changes in the way insurance companies manage liability claims, our insurers may require the Company to advise them immediately following any incidents in which they may have an interest, particularly incidents involving personal injury. In order to comply with these changes, any person who is involved in an incident must immediately report the circumstances to the Agricultural or Industrial Secretary.
